School Policy for School Uniform

Implemented September 2015

It is our school policy that all children wear school uniform when attending school and when participating in a school organised event outside normal school hours. School uniform is part of the school ethos and in coming to CTK parents agree to support our policy. For this reason it is not expensive. If parents do have any difficulties then they are encouraged to contact the school for support and guidance.

Our policy on school uniform is based on the notion that school uniform:

- promotes a sense of pride in the school;
- engenders a sense of community and belonging towards the school;
- is practical and smart;
- identifies the children with the school;
- prevents children from coming to school in fashion clothes that could be distracting in class;
- makes children feel equal to their peers in terms of appearance;
- is regarded as suitable wear for school and good value for money by most parents;
- is designed with health and safety in mind

Introduction

The school policy for School Uniform was developed and agreed by governors, parents, staff and school council.

Aims

Through this policy we aim to:

Ensure that within our school we wish to promote an atmosphere which encourages effort, enjoyment and a celebration of the achievements of all our pupils. The school's concern for these high standards is also reflected in the pride we take in our school uniform and the feeling of belonging it creates.

The Governing body at CTK School will respect variations to our school uniform if they are directly related to established religious or cultural traditions. However, any variation will be dealt with on an individual basis and judgements will remain at the discretion of the Head Teacher and the Governing Body.

Uniform

In order to maintain a strong sense of identity and belonging within our school, we require all pupils to wear school uniform which consists of:

- blue sweatshirt (with the school logo on).
- blue cardigan (with or without the school logo on)
- white polo shirt (with or without the school logo on)
- Grey or black trousers– no jeans please
- Grey, navy or black skirt - no leggings please
- Black flat sensible, safe, shoes or trainers (with no markings)
- Black , navy blue or brown, flat boots as a winter option

Summer Options

- Plain grey, black or navy shorts
- Sandals with socks (no open toes please)
- Gingham dresses – blue
- Any cap to protect from the sun

PE Kit

- White T-Shirt or Polo Shirt
- Plain black or navy shorts or leggings
- Trainers for outdoor games only
- Plimsolls for indoor PE – this is for health and safety reasons
- Tracksuit for outdoor games – Autumn and Spring terms only.

Jewellery

It is advised that pupils do not wear jewellery to school, especially as individuals become very upset if a treasured piece of jewellery goes missing. The only acceptable items of jewellery to be worn are a wristwatch and earring studs.

Should a pupil have pierced ears, plain studs should only be worn and in order to comply with health and safety regulations, must be removed or covered with a plaster during all PE activities. Please note that the school will be unable to take any responsibility for any jewellery that is lost.

Watches

Watches may be worn to school. However, they must be removed and collected by the class teacher before any PE lessons. Please note that the school will be unable to take any responsibility for any watches that are lost.

Make Up

No make up is to be worn to school and no nail varnish should be worn on nails or toes.

Hair

We recommend that hair should be neat and tidy and worn with no extremes of style or colour. Any style or colour deemed inappropriate by the school will first result in a discussion with the Head teacher who will attempt to find reconciliation, but whose word is final, subject to appeal processes. Long hair should be tied back during the school day, so it does not impede on the child's vision.

We expect all pupils to follow the dress code as written above.

Role of the Head teacher and Governing Body

- The Head teacher will ensure that pupils comply with the uniform policy agreed by the governing body.
- The Head Teacher has a duty to enforce the school uniform throughout the school community, as part of the duty within maintenance of day to day discipline in the school.
- The Governing body should be receptive to any reasonable complaint from parents or carers, concerning uniform, handling it respectfully, considering fully the issues they raise. Governors should aim to work with parents to arrive at a mutually acceptable outcome.

Role of the Parents/Guardians

- To ensure that their child / children adhere to the school's uniform policy.
- Ensure that they come to school in uniform every day unless there are special circumstances such as Christmas parties or charity fund raising.
- Parents and carers should raise any complaints about the school uniform by following the schools complaints procedure.

Racial Equality & Equal Opportunities

All children have equal access to wearing school uniform regardless of their culture, race, religion, gender, disability or ability. We ensure that the set uniform respects other policies such as Race relations, sex discrimination and allows for individual sets of circumstances of all groups and individuals. CTK School is committed to creating a positive climate that will enable everyone to work free from racial intimidation and harassment and to achieve their full potential.

Non-Compliance with the School Uniform Policy

The Head teacher or Deputy head teacher may discipline a pupil for breach of the Uniform/Appearance Policy. The Head teacher or Deputy Head teacher may ask pupils to go home to change their clothes without formally excluding them. This should be for no longer than necessary to effect the change of clothing and would only be appropriate where the change could be made quickly and easily. The Head teacher will not send a pupil home indefinitely or for longer than is necessary to change clothes or modify appearance (e.g. by having a haircut) as this could amount to an unofficial exclusion. When sending a pupil home, the Head teacher or Deputy Head teacher will first contact the parents or carers. The pupil would be expected to return to school immediately after his/her clothes had been changed. Failure to do so could amount to an unauthorised absence. As an alternative to this, a supply of spare uniform will be kept in school and children may be asked to change into this. Exclusion is not normally an appropriate response to breaches of school uniform/appearance policies. However, where these breaches are persistent and in open defiance of the school's uniform or appearance policy and where all other avenues for resolving the uniform dispute have been exhausted, then the school may consider exclusion as a last resort depending on the circumstances of the case.
