HEADS UPDATE

I have had many, many conversations with staff and parents since September around the Catholic ethos of the school. I have been informed of a time when Christ The King was a sought after school by parents who wanted their children to grow under the umbrella of a more spiritual atmosphere based on a deep understanding of respect, tolerance and faith. People described to me the ambience of the school only a few years ago when staff, parents and pupils felt part of one big family and how this could be felt when you walked into the school each day. Communication was strong and people looked after each other and shared feelings and thoughts openly. This is the kind of ethos I would like to try and create once more and I would like to think that we are on the right track. Our school action planning isn't just around academia but also involves how we can create an ethos in school that will support and nurture relationships on all levels; between pupils, parents, staff, governors, the wider community and of course God.

There are times when we call upon these relationships more than others. Times when something awful happens and we rely on these relationships to support those most effected and hurt.

During the last two days I have witnessed the collective emotions of our compassionate staff who are desperate to support one of our families going through a devastating time at present. Our actions will be driven by the wishes of the family but I just wanted to share that, as a staff, we are united in the shock of what happened and our hearts go out to the family and community that cherished such an amazing father, husband and friend.

God bless.

Our Perseverance Role Models

These pupils demonstrated perseverance so well this week they have become our role models.

NOTICES

- Due to staff absence, the school is without a crossing patrol person for a few weeks. Please can I ask parents to be extra vigilant when crossing the road on Parsonage Road.
- Reminder from class teachers - Please can all pupils ensure they have their PE Kit in school every day. Even though we timetable in weekly PE lessons, sometimes last minute extra sessions take place.
PE kits should consist of the following - white round neck t-shirt, black shorts, plain black track-suit bottoms and a plain black jumper for colder weather, and either black daps/plimsolls or trainers.
- With the warmer weather gradually setting in we appreciate children may want to wear more summer friendly footwear. Due to health and safety reasons, we cannot permit the use of open toed footwear.
- Please can I remind parents/guardians that any hair longer than shoulder length MUST be tied back during the school day.
